

SPOTKANIA TRANSPORTOWE

WELCOME for presentation in the brochure

Get in touch with your prospects. Tell them about your products and services in the information. We provide professional publication development and attractive prices.

A special addition of the monthly TSL Biznes will be sent to 10,000 transport companies selected from our database, which are thus invited to participate in Transport Meetings. The guide will be sent to transport companies with the monthly TSL Biznes and will be added to welcome bags for the conference participants. This guide is also an ideal solution for companies taking part in Transport Meetings, because they will be able to announce that they will take part on the conference.

By providing interested parties with our magazine, you can be sure that they will receive a complete set of information about your products and services.
